NEATLY PRINTED TO ORDER AT THIS

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER.

Oh say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's
last gleaming:

Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?

And the rockets red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag
was still there:

O say, does the Star-spangled banner
still wave
O'er the land of the free and the home
of the brave?

On the shore, dimly seen through the mist of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence
reposed,

What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it flut'ly blows, half conceals, half discloses?

Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam—
In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream:
'Tis the Star-spangled banner, O! long may it wave

O'er the land of the free and the home
of the brave.

And where is the band who so vauntingly boast
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion
A home and a country will leave us no more?

Their blood has wash'd out their foul footsteps' pollution.
No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave:

And the Star-spangled banner in triumph
doth wave
O'er the land of the free and the home
of the brave.

O! thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand
Between their lov'd homes and the foe's desolation;
Dress'd with victory and peace, may our heaven-
rescued land

Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation.
Then conquer we must, for our cause it is just—
And this be our motto—"In God is our trust!"

And the Star-spangled banner in triumph
shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home
of the brave.

OVER THE WAY.
Gone in her childhood's purity,
Out from the golden day
Fading away in the light so sweet,
Where the silver stars and the sunbeams meet,
Paving the path for her waxen feet
Over the silent way.

Over her bosom tenderly
Twine the arms of love and sweet
The lashes lie on her cheeks so thin,
Where the softest blush of the rose has been,
Shedding the blue of her eye's wilding
The pure lid closed in rest.

Over the sweet brow lovingly
Twine the arms of love and sweet
She was so fragile, that Love sent down
From his heavenly home, that soft bright crown,
To shade her brow with his waves so brown:
Light as the dimpling air.

Gone to sleep with a tender smile
Frozen on her tender lips
By the far-fetched kiss of her dewy breath,
Laid in the clasp of the angel Death,
Like the last leaf of the fading wreath,
Whose bloom the white frost nips.

Robin—hushed in your downy bed,
O'er the evening loom—
Do you miss her voice from your glad dream,
When the dew in the heart of the rose is set,
Till its velvet lips, with the essence wet,
In orient crimson glow?

Rosebud—under your shady leaf,
Beneath the shimmering
Do you miss the glance from the eyes so bright,
Whose blue was heaven in your timid sight?
It is beaming now in the world of light
Over the starry way.

Here's where the darling's head hath lain,
Beneath the shimmering
Do you know that the touch of her gentle hand
Dethroned the harp in the unknown land?
Oh, she waits for us with the angel band
Over the starry way.

"SATANELLA" The New York correspondent of the San Francisco Call, thus refers to the reorganization of parties now about being instituted in the Eastern States. It appears the original abolitionists are still dissatisfied, and will have nothing less than perfect equality. "Satanelle" says:

Speaking of President Johnson, a radical portion of the Republican party here has been ground against the present Administration, and hope to bring the whole Republican party over to the same position. Johnson is a Democrat. Johnson will not interfere to compel the reconstructing States to give negroes the right to vote. Hence they oppose. Under the auspices of Chase, Stanton, Sumner, Phillips, and so on, the banner of "Negro Suffrage" is to be hoisted as the standard of the Republican party in the next campaign, and Negro Equality (politically speaking) made the issue against Johnson and the Democratic party at the polls. How it will turn out remains to be seen. The conservative portion of the Republican party does not much relish this issue at present, but will probably come into the traces in the end. They growl loudly, protest strongly, but will ultimately succumb. As for the Democrats, they rejoice in Johnson. Now that slavery is extinct, there will be no division of that party, they imagine. They fancy that all the Democrats who have "fallen from grace" in years back on the slavery question will now return, and, aided by the votes of Southern loyalists, they hope once more to carry all before them. Will they be able to do so, however? We'll see.

The beautiful theory of our Government is that the people are the sovereign, and that at the primary which are held in every nook and corner of the land, that like the tiny root that feeds the giant tree, are supposed to be heard the untrammelled and unbiased wishes of these sovereigns, and from them spring the expressions of principle which govern the nation. But how wofully are we disappointed. It is not the people who are sovereign, but the tricksters who govern the primaries. This is practice, verily a theory; but when the people show their independence of these tricksters, and hold the action of the primaries, they show their appreciation of their rights and duties as sovereigns, and the highest evidence of capacity for governing themselves. I think I was telling you of La Porte when I closed my letter. It is enough above the valley world to inherit the bracing air and invigorating influence of the mountains, and affords a comfortable asylum for the traveler—the only objectionable feature of the town is the "seesaw" proclivities of the proprietors of the principal "Hotel," otherwise called in olden time "a tavern."

I don't think I am "over and above" squeamish in regard to hotels; if ever I have the sensibility to feel great disgust, it is in regard to the "seesaw" proclivities of the proprietors of the principal "Hotel," otherwise called in olden time "a tavern."

To TAXPAYERS.—The Board of Equalization will meet at the Clerk's office on Monday next, the 14th inst., and all persons who have any complaints to make in regard to their assessment, should attend and present the same to the Board, and not wait until after the meeting is adjourned, and the taxes are due before they make objection to the assessment. The Board will probably be in session for several days.

THE TICKET.—We hold at the head of our columns, the ticket nominated by the People's Union Convention, and respectfully call the attention of the Union men of this county, to the candidates on that ticket.

We delayed the issue of the paper until this (Sunday) morning, for the purpose of publishing the proceedings of the Convention &c.

SETTLED.—The bill against the Union party, a notice of which appeared in our last, has been satisfactorily arranged by gentlemen who were connected with the Central Committee at the time.

UNION MEN OF PLUMAS.—You are to judge which ticket shall receive your support at the next election. If the People's ticket is the strongest, as we believe it is, it is your duty to give it your support.

The Democrats are alive, and will make great exertions to elect their ticket; and the Union men to defeat them, must throw their support to the PEOPLE'S TICKET.

REFUTED.—On the ticket nominated by the People's Convention there are but a few men whose names have ever been before the public as nominees for any official position. Will that state slander, that sore-headedness be the cause of the bolt be revived again? we reckon not.

WE understand that our neighbors of Plumas county are discussing a magnificent project—a project that is said to enter largely into the political combinations of the various parties and factions in that county; this is no less than the organization of a company for the purpose of making a wagon road from Oroville, up the north fork of Feather river to Indian Valley, and thence through the Beckworth pass to the eastern side of the mountains. It is asserted by the promoters of this magnificent enterprise, that a road can be made below the snow line, through the canon of Feather river, which by reason of its great depth, and the perpendicular formation of its banks, offers great facilities for the construction of this road. It is intended to construct it on an easy grade, in fact so easy, that when the surplus profits of the company justify it, which undoubtedly will be very soon, they intend to change it from a wagon road to a railroad. The cost of this road is variously estimated at from $500,000 to 3,000,000 dollars, of which Butte county is expected to take about ten per cent. Lassen county about six; what proportion Plumas intends to preserve for herself we are not informed, but hope they will not be greedy and take too much themselves.—[Sage Brush.]

THE Union Party of Lassen county stand in a peculiar position.—[Sage Brush.]

DICTIONARY.

ANNUAL FAIRS IN CALIFORNIA FOR 1865.—The State Fair, at Sacramento, commences September 11th, and continues through the week. The fifth Industrial Fair of the Mechanics' Institute of San Francisco, will commence August 10th. The San Joaquin District Fair, at Stockton, commences September 20th, and will continue five days. The fifth Annual Fair of the Contra Costa Agricultural Society commences the 19th of September next, and continue four days. The Northern District Agricultural Fair, at Marysville, begins August 28th, and continues five days.

PICNIC.—A Picnic will be held in the grove near Mr. Christman's mill in this valley, on Thursday next. The Scholars belonging to the Sunday School and all others who wish to attend and take part in the exercises, are requested to meet at the Court house at 10 o'clock A. M. of that day.

FOOT PADS.—On Friday of last week, a couple of road agents made their appearance on the road between Sawpit and Grass Valley. A fruit peddler returning from Sawpit with a covered wagon, was halted by the two men, who, with pistols leveled at the peddler, ordered him to stop. But instead of acceding to their demand, he whipped up his horses, drew a pistol he had with him and commenced shooting. The would-be robbers discharged several shots at him, and some five or six balls passed through his wagon cover. A short time after, a man on horseback, saw the two robbers in the bushes near the road, a short distance ahead of him, and he turned his horse and made a hasty retreat. The agents have yet with poor success so far. A company of men from Sawpit were intending to start out on a hunt for the gangs.

THE BOUNDARY.—Mr. Miller, the Commissioner appointed on the part of Plumas, to assist in running the line between Butte and Plumas, informs us that he was never notified by the Surveyor of Butte of the time that the work of running the line would be commenced, and, as a matter of course, could not tell when it would be done. As the article published in this paper some four weeks ago, may have done Mr. M. an injustice, we publish the above statement.

NEW PROPRIETOR.—We learn that R. E. Garland has purchased one-half of the Stage and Mail route between this place and Oroville. "Dick" is an energetic young man, and knows how to stock and keep up a stage route. It is a safe two-to-one bet that the road will be kept open all winter, now that Dick is peculiarly interested in the route. Success to him.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Any person knowing the whereabouts of Joseph Joseph Knoll will confer a great favor on his brother, by notifying him of the fact. When last heard from, he was at or near Coloma El Dorado county, Cal.

Address Henry Conklin, Taylorville Plumas county Cal.

DIED.—At Taylorville, Aug. 5th, MARY, youngest daughter of R. H. and Margaret Fairchild, aged 2 years, 6 months and 22 days.

ROBERT.—It is currently reported that Jesse Woodward, formerly of this county, was a passenger on board the steamer Brother Jonathan. His name does not appear among the list of passengers, but from parties who were in San Francisco at the time, we learn that it was his intention to take passage on the steamer.

REVENUE.—Six hundred and eighty Foreign Miners' Licenses were sold by the Tax Collector in the month of July. The total amount of revenue collected by the Tax Collector during the same month, and paid into the County Treasury, amounted to the sum of $23,235.01. The amount of Delinquent Property Taxes collected in the same month, amounted to the sum of $235.00.

FATAL AFFAIR.—On the evening of the 7th inst., two Irishmen, residents of Indian Valley, named Daniel Brown and Ed. Aywood, had a dispute in regard to some money matters, which soon led to a fight between them. Both parties were drunk. Brown, as appears by the evidence, was very drunk. Brown seemed particularly anxious for a fight. The parties were separated two or three times, but got together again, and in the last round, Aywood drew Brown and fell upon him, very heavily. Brown fell with his back across a log, both of the men were seriously injured. Brown had one of his lips badly bitten, when the parties were separated Brown was hardly able to move, and he was walking around the streets of Taylorville in company with Aywood the next day and they seemed very friendly. Brown kept up until the next day when he commenced to sink rapidly and died the night of the 9th inst. A Coroner's Jury was summoned, and after holding an examination returned the following verdict:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, County of Plumas, ss.

We, the undersigned, the Jurors summoned to appear before A. F. Blood, Esq., a Justice of the Peace, in Indian Township, in said county, Acting Coroner, at Taylorville, the county aforesaid, on the 9th day of August, A. D. 1865, to inquire into the cause of the death of Daniel Brown, having been duly sworn according to law, and having made such inquiry, after inspecting the body and hearing the testimony adduced upon our oath, each and all of us, that we find deceased named Daniel Brown, was a native of Ireland, aged about forty-five years; that he came to this county on the 5th day of August, 1865, in said town and county, by a sculler or raft with one Edward Aywood, on the 7th day of August, 1865.

All of which we duly certify by this inquiry in writing, by us signed this 9th day of August, A. D. 1865.

Aywood was arrested and an examination held before Esq. Blood, who committed him to the custody of the Sheriff, to await the action of the Grand Jury. Bonds were placed at $1000. The prisoner arrived in town on the 11th, and was placed in jail.

NOTHING BUT LAY &

Nothing but leaves. The spirit grieves
Over a wasted life.
Sins committed while conscience slept;
Promises made and never kept;
Hatred, battle and strife.
Nothing but leaves.
Nothing but leaves; no garnered sheaves
Of life's fair ripened grain;
Words, idle words, for earnest deeds;
We sow our seeds—in tares and weeds;
We reap with toil and pain.
Nothing but leaves.
Nothing but leaves. Memory weaves
We'll to screen the past;
As we retrace our weary way,
Outing such lot and misadventure day,
We find, sadly at last,
Nothing but leaves.

And shall we meet the Master so,
Bearing our withered leaves?
The Saviour looks for perfect fruit—
We stand before him, humbled, mute,
Waiting the words he breathes—
"Nothing but leaves!"

NEGRO SUFFRAGE.—A Republican form of government, says the Pajaro Times, depends for life upon the intelligence of the people. Ignorance should yield to the power of knowledge; but brute force is not without triumphs. No sensible man will dispute the fact that the negro, though not in slavery, will ever be the slave of the white man's influence, and will, politically, through stupidity or a desire for gain, become the tool of unprincipled wire pullers. To grant the negro ballot-box privileges will be but to increase his power of ignorance at the polls which intelligent voters so justly complain of. California is assuredly opposed to any such measure.

FEEDING.—How much time might be saved, if like the inhabitants of the moon, we fed only once a month. Baron Munchausen says: "They lose no time at their meals, but open their left side, and place the whole quantity at once in their stomachs, and then shut it till the same day in the next month, for they never indulge themselves with food more than twelve times in a year."

The Archbishop of Dublin once inquired of a physician, "Why does the operation of hanging kill a man?"
"Because inspiration is checked, circulation stopped, and the blood suffused and congests the brain."
"Boh!" replied His Grace, "it is because the rope is not long enough to let his feet touch the ground."

A SUPERINTENDENT of a mission school, being annoyed by the noise, finally, in appealing to the boys, raising his hand, said: "Now let's see if we can't hear a pin drop." All was silence, when a little fellow in the back part of the room, cocking his ear and placing himself in an attitude of breathless attention, spoke out:—"Let her drap."

MINOR COW.—There is a cow at the Soldiers' Home in Washington, which traveled with Sherman's army all the way from Atlanta to Richmond—one thousand two hundred and twenty miles. She belonged to the General's mess, and gave over a gallon of milk a day. Her march was certainly a milky-way.

A "female Blondest," of Vienna, was kneeling on a rope seven feet high, when some idiotic bogan tightening it below. This caused a jerk; she lost her balance, and fell head foremost on a table. Her head was not in the slightest degree injured, but she broke a leg and arm.

The Mendocino Democrat says that elk abound in great numbers throughout the mountainous district of that county, and they, in conjunction with the myriads of deer, bear, grouse and quail, offer rare inducements to sportsmen.

The London Post says the question of the Alabama's depredations has reached an unpleasant point—Great Britain having refused indemnity, and the American rejoinder hinting at compulsion.

MECHANICS' FAIR.—Preparations for the annual fair of the Mechanics' Institute in San Francisco are being made. The center of the hall, under the grand dome, will be occupied by Mezzara's colossal statue of Lincoln.

A GENTLEMAN coming into the room of the late Dr. Barton, told him that Mr. Yorl was dead. "What," said he, "Vowel dead? Let us be thankful it was neither 'u' nor 'i'."

Mr. KIMBLE, living one mile from Petaluma, fell in a fit, recently, and a candle which he had in his hand at the time, setting fire to his night clothes, he was burned to death.

The man who "is too poor to take a paper" was in town the other day. He left in the evening in company with a gallon of best-hued whisky and eight plugs of dog-leg tobacco.

A HANDSOME bust of President Lincoln, paid for by subscription of freed slaves, has been placed above the pulpit of the African Methodist Church, at Raleigh, North Carolina.

Some conscience stricken patron of the Troy Press, a few days since, sent a letter to the proprietors enclosing ten dollars, with the single line, "The enclosed belongs to you."

The Chicago Times thinks that as Washington was known as the father of his country, Jeff. Davis ought hereafter to be known as the mother of the Confederacy.

It is stated that Pierre Soule, formerly United States Senator from Louisiana, is going to open a law office in the City of Mexico.

An Indiana paper refused lately to publish eulogiums gratis, but added: "We will publish the simple announcement of the death of our friends with pleasure."

An English paper contains an advertisement: "A piano for sale by a lady about to cross the Channel in an oak case with carved legs."

Medical Advice.—Dr. W. K. Doherty's

Medical and Surgical Institute is established a sine qua non to the welfare of our State and health of our citizens; and his rapidly spreading reputation, although it may excite surprise, is but the signal of success, and follows as the natural effect of such a cause. We are personally acquainted with gentlemen who had suffered for years under chronic diseases, and who had taken advantage of every available means that promised relief, but without success, until they called upon Dr. Doherty, who in an incredibly short space of time has given them entire relief. It is gratifying to announce this fact, because the Doctor is a gentleman who seeks, not by defamations of others, to establish his reputation or to rear the superstructure of his own upon the ruins of another's fame. The Doctor conducts his Institute in such a manner that must be gratifying to all his patients. He examines, advises, and recommends without charge, and the patient after hearing his terms for treatment, can accept or reject at pleasure. In no case does the Doctor make a charge unless he effects a cure. This is his able to do, because he feels the confidence which long experience has given, and the confidence the consolation which appertains to that chronic disease, persons afflicted with either acute or chronic disease, would do well to consult the Doctor; at all events, it can do them no harm, as for consultation he asks no fee; nor does he insist on obedience to his advice unless the patient places himself under his care. His offices are on Sacramento street, opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship office. [S. F. News, 34-35]

NOT A FEW

Of the worst diseases that afflict mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the blood. Of all the diseases that have been made to purge it out, none can equal in effect HELMBOLD'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SASSAPARILLA. It cleanses and renovates the blood, is the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expels the disorders that grow and rankle in the blood. Such a remedy, that he relied on has long been sought for, and now, for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit of certificates to show its effects, but the trial of a single bottle will show to the sick that it has virtues surpassing anything they have ever taken.
